The main mission of the See3Slam Organizers is to ensure this family-friendly event remains safe, organized and enjoyable for all participants. At team check in, each team will be required to designate ONE TEAM REPRESENTATIVE. This individual may be the team-coach, team-captain, or team-parent who will not only wear a tournament-issued wristband for the duration of the tournament BUT will be expected to be in attendance for each scheduled team game.

Why the wristband?

This helps our tournament staff, referees, and volunteers quickly identify the go-to person for each team—whether it's for check-in, updates, or in-game questions. It cuts down on confusion and helps us serve you faster and better!

By wearing this wristband, the Team Representative is stepping up as your team's point person. They are accepting the responsibility of representing your team—an important role that helps keep the event organized, safe, and fun for everyone. We need your help to keep things moving and make this tournament a great experience for all.

By virtue of the above signature, the TEAM REPRESENTATIVE agrees to be the contact for:

- Game time changes or updates
- Score or rule clarifications
- Emergency or first aid info
- Sportsmanship and sideline support
- Dispute Resolution

We're all about creating a fun, competitive, and respectful environment—and your role as the TEAM REPRESENTATIVE plays a big part in that.

Be sure to read the reverse side for a refresher on See3slam rules of conduct.

Thanks for being part of the See3Slam community—we can't wait to see you out there! ·

See 3 Slam Rules for Sportsmanship

1. Show respect for your opponents. Remember the Golden Rule: Treat your opponent the way you would want them to treat you.
2. Show respect for the monitors. Tournament officials are trained and expected to be impartial guides and arbitrators of See 3 Slam games. Sportsmanship requires the willingness to accept and abide by the decisions of the officials. Remember, our tournament officials and volunteers are the foundation of this event; without them, there would be no See 3 Slam.
3. Know, understand, and appreciate the rules of See 3 Slam. A familiarity with the rules of See 3 Slam and the recognition of their necessity for a fair contest is essential. Good sportsmanship suggests the importance of conforming to the spirit as well as the letter of the rules. (Please note that See 3 Slam rules allow for technical fouls or disqualification for severe cases of unsportsmanlike behavior.)
4. Keep your cool! Sportsmanship requires discipline to maintain your perspective no matter what happens in a game, whether you're playing or watching.
5. Cheer for your team and the other team! Applause for a good performance of an opponent is a demonstration of generosity and goodwill.

See 3 Slam requires that players and fans refrain from:

1. Yelling during the opponent's free-throw attempts, or anytime in a disrespectful manner, or to distract your opponents.
2. Booing, heckling or antagonizing a monitor, coach, or player.
3. Blaming the loss of a game on the monitors or coaches.
4. Using profanity or displaying anger that draws attention away from the game.

Technical, flagrant and intentional fouls against you, your teammates, or fans will result in the opposing team receiving one-point and possession of the ball.

Thank you for setting a good example of sportsmanship!

Good sportsmanship and cooperation are both anticipated and expected. The team captain or designated coach, if applicable, is expected to aid in controlling teammates' and team followers' conduct and to represent his/her team as spokesperson in case of appeals to Tournament Officials. Poor sportsmanship could result in penalties against the team in terms of technical fouls and/or suspensions for a player, coach, team or spectator(s). Failure to comply with the Spirit of See3Slam, including acts such as fighting, taunting, intimidating or verbally attacking a tournament official, player or spectator may lead to removal of that player, team and/or spectator from the tournament. Any ejection from the tournament will result in a suspension from participating in a future See3Slam tournaments. Decisions made by tournament officials are FINAL and are not subject to review by video, other recordings, or any other sources
